*rarely do men know
the direction their lives
will take,*

*or the point
from which they will learn to judge.*

*we are plundering uncertainty,
wondering when the
circles will cease.*

*partially aware
of our existence
as a facet in a
greater hope . . .*

we often evade

the answers

to those questions

which are not obvious.

within all people
we can find a part
still growing -
an openness
such as youth -

*for youth is relatively near to permanent growing
and in growing
we find ourselves.*

*we are able to know the design of our existence -
the definition of our*

uniqueness.

we must realize that the definitions of youth are widely varied and are as numerous as the people who choose to think about it.
so we must leave youth, in this case, simply, a state of mind, a boldness with which to seek
and have faith in the interest of others, that they will continue to perceive the essence of youth.

To Our Parents

for being who you are,
and seeing tomorrow
before we could speak,

signs of hope
signs of life...
similies of love.

accepting and believing
us as individuals,

tolerating despair
with familiar gentleness
you have lived with our growth and our struggle
to become
what we must.

we have given you hurt that
knows no pain,
and no time.

you, perhaps more freely
have chosen to give us
the love
because
you know what dawn is,
and you are who you are...

and have lived a day.

words

these are transient times,

to be fulfilled
and remembered.

yet I question...

Juniors

only he who searches the sky
will find the dawn...

why are you watching?

what do you look for?

REV. JOHN J. NICHOLS

Ever since Father Nichols has come to St. Joseph's in Kingston, he has been most interested in the students at the Sacred Heart schools. Father has met with us in the classroom, the lunch room, the study halls, and in private interviews. Always he has been most generous with his time. The student body would like to take this opportunity to thank Father for his support and interest in our school functions.

Rev. John J. Nichols
